

From Little Things, Big Things Grow

The Musica Viva Story

A luncheon address with

Emily Kelly

SA Manager, Musica Viva Australia

Musica Viva began in 1945 when Jewish immigrant Richard Goldner founded Musica Viva to promote chamber music.

Today Musica Viva is the largest presenter of chamber music in the world, presenting leading Australian and international artists to concert audiences and school students across the country, reaching 360,000 people directly every year.

You will enjoy Emily’s compelling story.
