

Sir Charles Todd FRS

Grand Visions and Fine Details

A luncheon address with

Richard Venus

Forensic Heritologist

Charles Todd is best known for the Overland Telegraph Line which, when completed in 1872, transformed Australian society. This is just one example of Todd's ability to achieve great things through his attention to the tiniest of details.

Richard Venus will discuss some of Todd's extraordinary contribution to Australia in a range of endeavours, including correctly locating the SA/NSW border, from his arrival in 1855 until his retirement in 1905.
